

March Minutes

The Commission for Women

March 5, 2015, 12:00 p.m., Hodges Library Room 605

__ in attendance: [will be updated]

- I. Call to order
- II. Approval of February minutes
- III. Future event on Women in Art on March 25
- IV. CFW Awards
 - a. Notable Woman Award: for staff only, only one candidate nominated was eligible, Ann Robinson-Craig
 - b. Angie Perkins Award
 - i. Dr. Walsh: Head of the Psychology Department, has addressed issues of sexism, made diversity hires, and instituted new diversity programs, including a woman's training program
 - ii. Dr. Schussler: Directory of Biology Teaching and Learning, overseeing curricular reform and professional development expansion
 - iii. Dr. Schmidt: former head of the department of Religious Studies, now head of the program in Judaic Studies
 - iv. Tammi Brown: Associate Director of Undergraduate Programs, lots of interaction with students, represented on every committee
 - v. Dr. White: Director of College of Law Center for Advocacy and Dispute Resolution at the College of Law, many accolades, UT Law's advocacy program is a top 25 program
 - c. Lactation room website has been updated (Mary Lucal)
 - i. Goal of including department lactation rooms that may not otherwise be known
 - ii. <http://facserv.utk.tennessee.edu/divisions/Design/lactation-rooms.html>
 - d. SEAT:
 - i. Sex Week website and events are online and live