I. Approval of February minutes

- Minutes were approved at 12:05 p.m. with minor corrections to be made.

II. Review/Proposed Amendment of Bylaws

- Papke reminded everyone of the proposed changes
- There was a motion to approve the changes at 12:06 p.m.

III. Mary Evans – Women's Economic Summit

- Clifton M. Jones Student Leadership Conference
- Evans provided a copy of the program from the January 20, 2007 event
- She summarized some of the key speakers and events that occurred at the conference.

IV. Report from the Faculty Senate

- No Report

V. Report from the Commission for Blacks

- Community relations forum
- CFB meeting next week
- Nancy McGlasson reported on the practices in the Admissions office at the last CFB meeting

- Papke noted that Ladysmith Black Mambazo and Nikki Giovanni would be on campus.
- Jane Redmond followed up that these events are on the Women's History month calendar.

VI. Report from the Commission for LGBT People

- On December 12th, the Commission for LGBT people had their organizational meeting.
- They are now an official commission: lgbt.utk.edu
- They have now had 3 meetings and look forward to collaborating with the CFB, the CFW, and the Dean of Students.
- Right now, the goal is to become more visible.
- UT definition of "Intercultural Diversity" does not include sexual orientation; this is something they would like to change. The satisfaction survey does not have a box to check sexual orientation.
- The Commission for LGBT people is open to lesbians, gays, bisexual, and transgendered people, as well as allies.
- Papke remarked that she spoke with the Chancellor to get a meeting with all the groups to move toward synergy and with that will come visibility.

VII. Quilts! Merikay Waldvogel: an event celebrating Women's History Month and the Appalachian Semester.

- Cavendish gave information about the event and passed around the event's postcards.
- Hulen took the opportunity to give some highlights off of the Women's History month calendar (which included Waldvogel's presentation on quilts).
- The opening ceremony for Women's History month is this Friday, March 02, 2007 and includes a candlelight vigil.
- Other events include: a visit by Nikki Giovanni and a debate on abortion.

VIII. Committee Reports
